

Imagine an independent Scotland. Our own central bank & currency, new financial regulatory setup, new and/or reformed banks, its own stock exchange, national investment bank, full fiscal control, no sodding Brexit. What a great place it would be, eh?

Dick Winchester, Energy & Strategy Consultant

4 years ago, I voted Yes. Then I got on a plane to Sweden. I ended up living in an independent country eventually. It's nice y'know. Scotland should try it.

Rosie, Gothenburg & Glasgow

